

Samuel King

LinkedIn | GitHub

A responsible and motivated Software Engineer. Experience building enterprise web applications in the Professional Services and E-commerce space. A skilled communicator and team player, comfortable integrating into new teams and working to deliver timely and effective solutions.

Relevant Experience

Sainsbury's Tech, Software Engineer (May 2021 - present)

Working in the Shared Services team to implement a microservice architecture to replace a legacy monolith, serving downstream tech teams.

- Delivery of event driven microservice architecture using Kafka message broker
- Implementation of eventstore library for NestJS as a key dependency for set of microservices
- Involvement with business stakeholders to gather requirements and communicate the features of the new system
- Present regularly at team knowledge share sessions, advocate for continuous improvement and use of agile methodologies

Tools and technologies: NestJS, React, TypeScript, GraphQL, Gremlin, Avro, Kafka, Postgres, MongoDB, Docker

Accenture, Software Engineer (October 2019 - May 2021)

- Build e-commerce solution to meet client needs, working full-stack using JavaScript technologies
- Implementation of various full-stack features, building UI components, development and consumption of REST endpoints, third-party integrations
- Sole responsibility for design and implementation of end-to-end performance test solution: writing test scripts, configuration and deployment of test environment, and automation of scheduled test runs
- Facilitation of weekly Engineering Guild forum. Delivery of regular presentations to guild of 40+ engineers, senior management, and client stakeholders

Tools and technologies: React, Redux, TypeScript, GraphQL, Node.js, Jest, AWS Lambda, Elasticsearch, JMeter, BlazeMeter, Jenkins

Caterpillar, Graduate Engineer (September 2018 - September 2019)

- Process improvement projects lead, working with internal and external stakeholders
- Responsible for design and development of new and existing hardware

Ricardo, Undergraduate Engineer (July 2015 - July 2016)

- Delivery of major software features on commercial automotive design application (Java)

Tools and technologies: Java, MATLAB

Volunteering

Onja, Volunteer Career Counsellor (June 2021 - present)

- A social enterprise in Madagascar that trains capable, low-income youth into frontend developers
- Conducting mock interviews on a weekly basis to prepare students for their first developer roles

Education

Makers Academy (October 2019 - December 2019)

- Intensive 12-week web development course at Makers Academy in London
- Pair programming, team projects, TDD, agile methodologies, OOP

Cardiff University (September 2013 - July 2018)

- MEng, Mechanical Engineering, First Class Honours

Hobbies and Interests

- Keen cyclist: completed several self-supported bike rides, most recently a 270 mile ride in 24 hours from London to Paris (2019), and a 1,000 mile ride from Berlin to Cardiff in 2018
- Triathlon: train and compete in various distances, most recently completed IRONMAN 70.3 Weymouth

Side Projects

- Web development blog sk52.github.io - a Gatsby starter blog used as a testing ground for learning new things, and then writing about them as blog posts.

LinkedIn

To find out more about my experience or to get in touch, find me on LinkedIn